Prohibition Army Winning Recruits, Saloon Men Say

High Prices Are Driving Many to Water Wagon, Bartenders Fear; Drinkers Still 'Try Anything Once'

One mouth of prohibition has proved that the New York drinker still is liv-ing up to his reputation of "trying anything once."

ing up to his reputation of "trying anything once."

The "anythings" tried thus far, according to admissions of drinkers and, those who cater to their inentive tastes, include bay rum, lemon extract, patent medicines, snuff, candy and prohibition. Yes, several veteran bartenders voiced the opinion that many hardened drinkers have taken to prohibition like ducks to water.

Moreover, it was explained yesterday, that those who are clambering on the water wagon are increasing in number daily. And this in face of the fact that almost any kind of a drink can be obtained by those who really want it and are willing to pay the price demanded.

keep every brand of refreshment on the market.
"I have an idea the trouble is

"I have an idea the trouble is largely with the increased prices," said one battender. "Cabaret houses have doubled and even trupled the prices. The result has been to make many of the best spenders—the kind we depend on for our regular patronage—disgusted with the situation. I have heard many of them say, "I'm glad the government has shut them up. They ought to have done it long ago."

Others agreed that "it was coming anyway" and that saloons would have gone the way of other old-fashioned places and institutions soon even if the law hadn't hastened their demise. Just how many bars have been forced to close by war-time prohibition will be known at the end of business hours to-morrow, as this is the final hour when rebates will be given on licenses the owners of which have agreed to retire.

retire.

Charles H. Betts, editor and legislator, who once was opposed by the Anti-Saloon League because of his supposed opposition to the organization's legislative plans, yesterday issued a statement in reply to one recently issued by the league in which supposed opposition to the organization's legislative plans, yesterday issued a statement in reply to one recently issued by the league in which that organization announced that it had withdrawn its objections to Mr. Betts. The Anti-Saloon League no longer is opposed to Mr. Betts, because it has been found desirable to "wipe the slate clean" and indorse all legislators who are willing to stand for enforcement of the 18th amendment.

and confirmed.

In testimony whereof we have caused the seal of the Surrogates' Court of Court Seal. the said County of New York to be hereunto amxed.

Witness, Hon. John P. Cohalan, a Surrogate of our said County of New York, at said County, the 22nd day of July, 1919.

DANIEL J. DOWDNEY,
Clerk of the Surrogates' Court.

Mr. Betts's statement sets forth that he is in favor of enforcing every part of the constitution and that his oath of office calls upon him to support the prohibition amendment just as he does every other law upon the nation's statute books.
